Casey Property Changes Hands.

George T. and Annie J. Casey have sold through the agency of Francis D. Denohne their property located at 133 Cedar street, near Slater avenue, to Joséph and Lucy Grillo of New York city. The property consists of a two tenement house on a lot 50x300 feet, and also an adjoining lot of 72x 300 feet was sold with the property. The new owners will occupy the property.

AUDITORIUM

Susan Grandaise in A Naked Soul -Gaumont News and Latest Mutt and Jeff Comedy Complete the Programme—Coming Monday and Tuesday. The Gray Ghost.

In "A Naked Soul" the sweetest girl in Europe is presented to Ameri-can film audiences. She is Susan andaise and she is certainly win-me and attractive. Miss Grandaise some and attractive. Miss Grandaise is one of the most popular feminine stars in Europe and it is a real treat that is in store for American audiences when they see her in this exceptionally interestin photoplay. This offering will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre today. Shorty Hamilton in a corking good two-reel western comedy and the Gaumant Weekly complete the programme. Tonight an old-fashioned cakewalk contest will be held. There are four test will be held. There are four couples entered in the contest. Fri-day night at 8:30 the first amateur contest. Coming Monday and Tues-day, The Gray Ghost.

DAVIS THEATRE

New Show Today-Keith Vaudeville Acts and William Desmond in a Big Triangle Feature Photo-play-

Another big bill of Keith vaudeville and Triangle feature photoplays; is billed to appear at the Davis the last half of this week and it looks as if this bill will excell any previous programme here this season. The feature attraction is the Farrell, Taylor company who present an unusually funny comedy skit entitled the African Duke, there are three people in the act and they introduce several musical numbers besides the singing a dncomedy. The three Tivoli Girls come next and they are a charming this of singers. The other act is the Two Violets, two dainty misses, who the act and they introduce several musical numbers besides the singing a ducomedy. The three Tivoli Girls come next and they are a charming trio of singers. The other act is the Two Violets, two dainty misses, who have a singing, dancing and costume change offering that will appeal to sveryone. All three acts are standard big time specialies. The Triangle feature is The Master of His House, in which Robert McKim, William Desmond and Alma Reuben appear. It is the story of a society girl who marries a wealthy but rough westerner and after marriage spends his money freely but is little of a wife to him. His Cool Nerve, a very funny comedy completes the bill. Special music by the Davis augmented concert orchestra.

Hazel Dawn and Bert Lytell in "The to move about, Lose Wolf" Feature for Today, Friday and Saturday.

Motion picture patrons who delight in the highest, type of photo-melo-drama, a story of breathless suspense, mystery and rapid-fire action, should flock to the Breed Theatre today, Friday and Saturday to see Herbert Brenons brilliant screen interpretation

Fischer and Master Cornish Beck.

The story centers about a remarkable criminal who, because of his habit of playing the game single-handed and his cleverness in covering his track, is known to the police as the Lone Wolf. In Paris, this man becomes involved in the machinations of a band of crooks who term themselves the Pack. Among them is a girl who arouses the Wolf's interest and in his belief that she is one of his craft, he aids her in escaping from the Pack. This escape is fraught with many perils and thrilling episodes, including a motorcar chase through the streets of Paris, the burning of a hotel and a battle in the air between aeroplanes, over the English Channel. The girl turns out to be in reality a member of the secret service, but upon the Lone Wolf's promise of reformation. of the secret service, but upon the Lone Wolf's promise of reformation she gives hi mhis liberty, with the prospect of a more tender alliance between them in the future.

BROOKLY FAIR ATTENDANCE 5,000

Splendid Weather Wednesday Coaxe Out the Crowd—Unusually Fine Exhibition of Cattle—Garden Products
Shown by Children's Clube a Surprise—State Defence Souncil's Telling Work-Speedy Races.

Brooklyn, Conn., Sept. 19.—Close to a record crowd came to the Brooklyn fair Wednesday. In all the years that the fair has been held there have been few as perfect fair days and this tended to bring visitors from every nook and corner of Windham county and from many points in New London and Tolland counties.

As had been predicted, the fair proved very satisfactory in every way. Every department was crowded with exhibits and visitors crowded about every exhibit.

About 5,000 Present.

The crowd began to pour through the gates soon after 9 o'clock and kept coming until well after 2 o'clock, when it was estimated that about 5,000 peo-

Along the Midway. The tents of concession buyers sprang up like mushrooms along the midway during Wednesday morning. In this tented line there was a variety of opportunity for amusement and chances at games of skill and also the supreme attraction where "your fortune" was told by a band of gaily bedecked gypsies. It was noticed that few of the men of draft age were giving the gypsies any money, the giving the gypsies any money, the assumption being that these huskies are not worrying about their fate.

Splendid Cattle Show,

Splendid Cattle Show,

The showing of cattle at the fair this year surpa sses any of the displays within a decade. There were 190 head in the sheds Wednesday forenoon when the judges began their work of awarding premiums.

By many this showing of cattle was regarded as remarkable, for many farmers have been reducing their herds during the past year on account of the excessively high price of grain. Boys' and Girls' Clubs Exhibit Produce.

In the exhibition building there is a display this year that holds more than passing attention. It is the showing by the Boys' and Girls' clubs of Windham county of the products of their gardens—their impressive answer to the call sent out last spring to swell the country's food supply. Boys and girls of Plainfield, Westminster, Canterbury and Brooklyn have splendid exhibitions—of such class as to make their elders to look to their laurels in the vegetable growing line.

Quality a Surprise. The quality of the products shown and the variety in which they are displayed proved really amazing to the thousands of fair visitors who had permitted themselves to believe that the children's garden movement was a fad and waste of effort, not to consider the throwing away of good seed, but they had one real surprise coming contests will be announced today. The general display of farm products at the fair this year is very good and fills all available space. There is also a fine showing of fruit.

Women's Building. In the woman's building, which was crowded all day long, there is a fine showing of needlework and of the special lines of domestic arts that are always on display there.

drama, a story of breathless suspense, mystery and rapid-fire action, should fock to the Breed Theatre today. Triday and Saturday to see Herbert Brenons brilliant screen interpretation of Louis Joseph Vance's famous novel, "The Lone Wolf," a Selanick-Pictures offering of exceptional quality.

The lovely and popular Hazel Dawn is featured, together with Bert Lytell, whose stage record has few parallels among the younger actors of the day. In other roles will be seen a galaxy of popular photoplayers and stage artists, that includes such names as Alfred Hickman, Edward Abeles, William E. Shay, Stephen Grattan, William Riley Hatch, Florence Ashbrooke, Juliet Brenon, Joseph Chailles, Ben Graham, Robert Fischer and Master Cornish Beck.

"Mittel Europa." Telling Displays. Telling Displays.

The exhibits that drive home this country's perils are supplemented by displays teaching how to grow food and fruit, how to preserve them; how to increase the supply of milk; how to raise poultry scientifically and how to do many other things that will help fight a battle that this country must wage successfully if it is to be on the winning side in the war. Demonstrations of preserving food and of testing milk were being made by experts within the tent during the day, and their work was closely followed.

Interesting Tests.

Interesting Tests. During the morning hours of Wednesday there was a display and tests of working oxen and town teams inside the ring, this feature proving of special interest to the men who are using oxen on their farms, and this number is constantly growing as the price of horses continues to soar.

Exhibit of Norwich Firm.

In the exhibition building the Brook-yn grange has a fine exhibit, which includes vegetables, fruit and samples of home arts. Plaut-Cadden of Norwich shows the concern's usual line of Wasserman and Crawford player-pianos and planos and Victor talking machine, the booth in charge of Adelard

The formal opening of this department will take place on Tuesday evenig. Oct. 9th, at the Y. M. C. A. when George F. Barber, president of the efficiency club of New York, will speak on Human Efficiency in business.

Mr. Barber is an efficiency expert and has gone into plants of varied business and has placed them on an efficiency basis. He instructed more than 1,000 business executives last year in the application of efficiency to their business.

The efficiency course has been prepared by Harrington Emmerson, known throughout the industrial world as the "High Priest of Efficiency." Mr. Emmerson lays down thirteen fundamental laws which solve the easiest, quicked by the West Side branch of the Young Men's Christian Association.

An invitation is extended to all business men and their preferred employes for the opening night. Tickets may be procured through the Young Men's Christian Association.
